SEBA's Mission Statement

The Southeastern Bluegrass Association (SEBA) is a nonprofit organization consisting of members, fans, bands, promoters, businesses, vendors, musicians, and friends of Bluegrass Music. Working together to reach a common goal: the preservation and promotion of Bluegrass Music, bringing it to the community through performers, instructors, jam sessions, venues and events, and providing information to all through our publications, the SEBA Breakdown and the SEBA websites.

BREAKDOWN

From the Editor

There wasn't room on the front page for a picture of the Tucker Colossus Jam in addition to the Woodstock Jam. So here is a shot from a recent Tucker do.

TUCKER GA - Usually formed in a circle, in this shot the group is lined up like they are waiting for the Georgia mail, mail mail.

I really don't know how much of page 4's "Live & Pickin'" or page 8's listings are accurate. Do you? Your picking buddies who read The Breakdown would appreciate you sharing what you know. Do drop us a line...

CORONAVIRUS Response Plan
 Due to the anxiously awaiting arrival of the coronavirus vaccine, EMS will be announcing specific guidelines weeks before the festival occurs. We can anticipate that the basic guidelines we see today will be in place at a minimum. Expect daily temperatures to be taken, social distancing, mask recommendations and hand sanitizing. We are still monitoring and evaluate the best course of action to keep you safe.
 We recommend that everyone take additional steps based on the current condition of your health.

Relatively Recent Releases

John Hiatt With The Jerry Douglas Band

Leftover Feelings

In the midst of a global pandemic, John Hiatt walked into Historic RCA Studio B to make a record. Hiatt teamed up with multi-Grammy award winning artist and producer Jerry Douglas and his band. The result of those sessions is the album Leftover Feelings. There's no drummer, yet these grooves are deep and true. And while the up-tempo songs are, as ever, filled with delightful internal rhyme and sly aggression, the Jerry Douglas Band's empathetic musicianship nudges Hiatt to performances that are startlingly vulnerable.

Leftover Salmon

Brand New Good Old Days

Leftover Salmon's new album, Brand New Good Old Days, heralds their return to Compass Records. The band, which is widely regarded as one of the architects of the jam band scene, has been brewing its own potent blend of bluegrass, rock 'n' roll, folk, Cajun, soul, zydeco, jazz and blues for over 30 years and continues to be one of the most popular acts on the festival scene. Over that time, Leftover Salmon's sound has grown and evolved while staying true to the roots and guiding spirit of the band's founding members - mandolinist/singer Drew Emmitt and guitarist/singer Vince Herman.

Dale Ann Bradley

Things She Couldn't Get Over

Dale Ann Bradley recently noted that, "bluegrass can go anywhere, do anything, rip your heart out and make you laugh."

Most of these 10 songs will do a number on your heart. This powerful collection is full of pathos; full of humanity. It's got ballads and laments portraying good people who pay a heavy emotional price for the cruelty, indifference or inflexibility of others.

These are hard-hitting songs indeed, and what really sells them is Bradley's wonderful singing.
